

All you need to know about booking and visiting us at The Beer Hall

Making a booking

Do I need to make a booking to visit?

We are proving to be extremely popular at, so we would recommend booking a table in advance whether you are joining us for food or just drinks. Just pop a note in 'Additional Information' if you are joining us for drinks only.

We do keep back a limited number of tables for walk in's but this is subject to availability on arrival.

Where do I book?

You can make a booking for up to eight people on our website www.everards.co.uk/bookatable
Bookings for more than eight people, please contact the team at beerhall@everardsmeadows.co.uk or call 0116 201 4101.

When trying to book it's saying 'No Times Available' what can I do?

If the system is not showing 'No Times Available' this means we are booked for that date and time, we do keep back a limited number of tables for work in's, but this is subject to table availability on arrival and cannot be guaranteed.

How can I amend a booking?

Contact the team at beerhall@everardsmeadows.co.uk or call 0116 201 4101 to amend your booking. We are unable to take amends through our social channels.

How do I cancel my booking?

Simply click on the cancellation link in your booking confirmation email. We are unable to take amends through our social channels.

Can I make a special request?

Yes, you can add requests in the 'Additional Information' box when making your booking and our team will try and accommodate where possible. Unfortunately, we cannot guarantee special requests, especially where specific seating areas are requested.

What if I have any special dietary requirements?

Please let us know by adding any special dietary requirements in the 'Additional Information' box when making your booking. This allows our team to be prepared for your visit.

Do I need to say if I need a highchair?

It would be great if you could add this in the 'Additional Information' box when making your booking. This allows our team to be prepared for your visit.

What if I'm coming just for drinks – should I book?

Yes, please book a table and simply add drinks only in the 'Additional Information' box when making your booking.
